

Question # 56

Answer: E

The first, second, third, and sixth payments were observed at their actual value and each contributes $f(x)$ to the likelihood function. The fourth and fifth payments were paid at the policy limit and each contributes $1 - F(x)$ to the likelihood function. This is answer (E).